Banned Books Week

September 26th - October 2nd

Banned Books Week celebrates the freedom to read. It brings together the entire book community; librarians, booksellers, publishers, journalists, teachers, and readers of all types, in shared support of the freedom to seek and to express ideas, even those some consider unorthodox or unpopular.

ROALD DAHL DAY

September 13th is Roald Dahl Day!

Come celebrate his many fan favorite novels as we put them on display in the children's room!

We hope to see you!

This year's theme is:

"Books Unite Us. Censorship Divides Us."

Sharing stories important to us means sharing a part of ourselves. Books reach across boundaries and build connections between readers. Censorship, on the other hand, creates barriers.
