

DIRECTORS REPORT
MARCH 21 2018

ADULT PROGRAMS

Bagels with BIOs – “I Know Where I ‘m Going” by Charlotte Chandler – March 23, 2018

Pizza and Pages – “Dodge City” Tom Clavin – April 30 2018

CHILDRENS PROGRAMS

New program called Toddler Sensory Fun – 16 toddlers attend twice monthly. The children are able to get messy with corn, feathers, bird seed, paint, etc.

Molly Matott Channel 3 Weather told about her exciting job.

Two yoga programs

Storytime Attendance Little Movers K=94 A==82
Pre School K=69 A63

Brenda and I are working on our summer programs. More details as we move further along.

OUTREACH

March 1 – Met with Joellyn Murray, librarian of Holy Family School to form a partnership which will encourage participation in our Imagination Library Program and 1000 Books by Kindergarten

March 12 – Home Learners of Central New York - Hannah Svarc to acquaint her with the services we offer and work with her to develop programs that will meet their needs.

March 14 – Meeting with West Genesee School District librarians – to introduce myself and ask that if they have a mandatory summer reading program they contact me to order adequate copies of the books for circulation

March 21 – Donna Regan – Master Gardener of Cornell University Cooperative Extension – discussed adult education programs which can be presented at the library.

March 23 - Workers Compensation meeting with Coner Brazell

FACILITIES

Flag pole installation – Eagle Scout project for Conor Hess

Requested quotes for the wheelchair ramp from Charles Freiburger and Dan Adams

Sam Lupo provided a “Noah’s Ark” display for the front of the library. The display will be on loan for the next four months.

Proposal to replace our copier

New contract with Outside Guys

Repair downstairs steps emergency exit. Need to consider because of fire or other crisis.

Pot hole at the front of the driveway needs to be repaired.

Replace flood lights

FUTURE PROGRAMS

April 7 – Piano recital in the community room.

April 27 an outreach program at the Fairmount Farmers market (12-3PM)

April 22 Sam Lupo will teach a woodcarving program for beginners. He will provide materials and tools.
Dr. Richard Giarrusso will present a program on the history of pottery in Onondaga County.

Met with Champion Fitness about a summer program in cooperation with our kids program

Common Thread Community farm – how to receive fresh sustainably grown vegetables on a shared basis.

Creation of STEAM program for home learners

